

Miss Howard Is a Bride in Historic Church

St. Mark's-in-the-Bouwerie Scene of Her Marriage to Robert W. Kean Before Notable Gathering

Edey Wedding Tomorrow

Marjorie Bruce Stewart Will Become Wife of Porter Hoagland Oct. 28

In old St. Mark's-in-the-Bouwerie—reduced to a small and simple building—weddings, but the scene in the past of many brilliant affairs of this nature—Miss Elizabeth Stuyvesant Howard, only daughter of Mrs. Thomas Howard, a granddaughter of Mrs. Ezra W. Howard, now ninety-two years old, and a niece of Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, became the bride at noon yesterday of Robert Winthrop Kean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Kean, of this city and Ellerton, N. J. The ancestors of both bride and bridegroom worshipped in this historic church since its earliest days.

The church was elaborately and artistically decorated with tall palms, and standards of white chrysanthemums.

SUSAN isn't a bit like other women; how entertaining the world would be if other women were like her.

The Oldest Man in the World!

JUST part of a skull, two molar teeth and a thigh bone! Pieced together, he produced one of the most perplexing conundrums in the study of human ancestry. Were these the remains of an ape-like man who lived 500,000 years ago? The evolution of the human race—what did primitive man look like?—was Asia the cradle of mankind?—these were some of the things men pondered. And science was not satisfied.

Now a great expedition is planned to search for the ancestors of this ape-man. In the NOVEMBER number of

ASIA

The American MAGAZINE on the Orient

MORE THAN 60 ILLUSTRATIONS—8-PAGE ART INSERT

is told the fascinating story of this Expedition to be conducted by the American Museum of Natural History, in cooperation with the American Asiatic Association and ASIA. The expedition will be led by Roy Chapman Andrews, who outlines the far-reaching plan in "A New Search for the Oldest Man."

"CIVIL WAR AS A PROFESSION IN CHINA"

John O. P. Bland, one of the most expert writers on the Far East, tells the tragic and humorous elements of the disruption of China's government under the plundering Tuhus—the counterparts of the robber barons of the Middle Ages.

"WILLARD STRAIGHT—War Correspondent"

A Japanese boy of twelve, a naked knife in his own hand at his vitals, did he dare kill himself?—the Samurai test of a warrior's nerve! Willard Straight's own diary as war correspondent tells this and many other stories of what the Russians faced when they fought Japan.

"JUNGLE STRATAGEMS AND SPOILS"

Charles Mayer spent a lifetime catching alive great pythons, lions, tigers, elephants and monkeys in the jungles of the East. He is telling his adventures in ASIA.

"WHEN HINDUSTAN WENT DRY"

Alad-din Khalji, the Sultan of Hindustan from 1296 to 1321, one day issued an edict that there should be no more drinking in his realm. Yet we think our problems today have never been known to previous generations! Read Gordon B. Enders' article.

Passmore, Robert Taylor, Roy Stewart, Edward Starr, William Jamison, Stanley Woodward, William Kinsley and George Woodward.

Mr. Taylor gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

Miss Marjorie Bruce Stewart, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George D. Stewart, will be married to Porter Hoagland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hoagland, October 28, in the Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas, Fifth Avenue and Forty-eighth Street. Mrs. Robert Vose White will be the sister's matron of honor and the other attendants will be Mrs. C. Maury Jones, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Dorothy Stewart, sister of the bride; Mrs. W. Thorn Kiesel and Miss Ethel Simmons. There will be two flower girls, Elizabeth Rieman Duval and Mary Leslie Stewart, sister of the bride.

Joseph M. Hoagland will serve as his brother's best man and the ushers will be another brother, Raymond Hoagland Jr.; John C. Holt, Lionel Bonner, Robert W. White, C. Maury Jones and Henri Werleman.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception at 42 East Fifty-fifth Street, the home of the bride's parents. Dr. Stewart is president of the New York Academy of Medicine.

The marriage of Miss Helen Krech, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, of 17 East Seventy-third Street, to L. Stuart Wing will take place at 4 o'clock Monday, November 22, in St. Bartolomew's Church. The engagement was announced in June at the same time as that of her sister, Miss Margaret A. Krech, to William Colson Roosevelt, a nephew of the late Colonel Roosevelt.

Miss Anita H. Emmet, daughter of Colonel Robert T. Emmet, of 77 East Eighty-ninth Street, will become the bride of Bartow Harwood Hall Saturday in Grace Church. Owing to mourning in the bride's family the wedding will be small, with only relatives and intimate friends present. Miss Emmet served as a nurse in one of the American field hospitals during the war. Mr. Hall was a captain of artillery in the 1st Division and was wounded three times. He is a son of Howard Hall, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McConnell January, who were married last Thursday in St. Ambrose's Chapel of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, will be at home November 1 at their country place, Green Gables, Ridgefield, Conn. Mrs. McConnell is a daughter of Mrs. Charles Herrick Childs, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Drexler, who were at the Plaza for the wedding, have gone to White Sulphur Springs, where they will remain three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ross Proctor and Miss Vandyke Proctor will return to the city from their country place at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., November 1.
